Where-to-buy Fashion Guide

Last year, Alberta took the fashion world by surprise. Our designers and manufacturers earned international acclaim for their energy, their creativity, and their mastery of a highly-competitive industry.

This year, their abilities will come as no surprise. Once again, they have demonstrated they have the talent — and the drive — to succeed in their continuing quest for excellence.

Success creates a momentum all its own, and this second annual directory illustrates the ever-growing range and diversity of our fashion industry. Those who appear in this guide are known for their innovation and creativity.

I encourage you to explore the potential for profitable business, and investment opportunities with Alberta's industry leaders.

I LOVE

LUSSO

"The increased level of recognition the government of Alberta is accorded the fashion industry here is tremendously encouraging for clothing manufacturers," discloses Brad Logan, Vice-President of the fledgling Calgary design firm Lusso Designs Ltd. Their signature line of hand-loomed men's and women's blended sweaters, strong on design, quality and texture, currently retail at several Alberta boutiques including Calgary's Mais Oui. Available only through Lusso Designs Ltd.

Jumpin' JACKET FLASH

New this Spring from Sprung Sportswear, the Bagman jacket. Reaching just below the knee and made from durable new waterproof

"entrant" fabric similar to Gortex, this snappy fashion piece shimmers in wonderfully fluorescent and pastel colors. Says Kerri Sprung, CEO and chief designer for the popular firm, "It's a multi-purpose jacket as welcome on the slopes of Nakiska as on the streets of Vancouver." All-weather, all-purpose magic from Sprung Sportswear.

THE CAT'S MEOW

Always avant-garde, Purple Cat women are trendy, colorful and in demand — just like jewellery bought from their namesake St. Albert boutique! "Fashion-conscious executives from 25 to 65 who prefer hand-made, one-of-a-kind or limited edition designs make up our client list," reveals Honika Zylstra, Purple Cat manager and chief designer, adding, "like Carol (owner Carol Watamaniuk) our clients like to rebel a little against the ordinary."

Made with plastic, metals and semi-precious stones, pieces range from strong geometric shapes and colors to small and soft silhouettes. Available through the Isabelle Grossman Agency in Toronto. In Edmonton, from Diana Kayser at The Fashion Centre.

IN GOOD TASTE

Fitted, witty designs that can be worn again and again define the unmistakable Lisa Williams look. Says the 25-year-old Edmonton-based designer, "For me, clothes must be in good taste and well-designed. I love things that are classically different." Her signature evening clothes — "I don't do business suits" — retail at Concrete Clothiers and at Onyx Gallery in Edmonton. And the recent New York Fashion Institute of Technology graduate confesses she's pleased to be part of an industry that's clearly going places in Alberta.

Take This Hair And 'SHUV-IT'

A breakthrough gadget that pulls long hair up without pins in less than 5 minutes is the latest brainchild of Jerome Pinsonneault of Jerome's I and II Calgary salon. The tiny disc with slits radiating from the centre characterized as "classic but trendy" by Jerome, "feels like there's really nothing there."

For a more sophisticated, avant-garde look try one of his remarkable fantasy plexiglass clips for the evening. To use these singular shapes, hair should be flatter, closer to the head for maximum effect. Claims the Calgary maestro "Hair should always be art." Available in Canada through Willmat Enterprises Ltd. of Calgary and in the United States through Starcrest of California.

A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS

"More Alberta men are interested in quality of design and detail than ever before," claims Darrell Derk, the bearded, brash impresario of Derk's Formalwear and a 10-year veteran of the Alberta menswear business. Known throughout the province for the classic look of his tuxedos, Darrell admits to an appreciation for a contemporary twist in accessories "to give the line detail and zip, no matter what the season."

DOLPHIN

"Cabezon" leather, a new produced-in-Canada product made from fish scales is making waves in the sophisticated evening purse industry. Manufactured by the Dolphin Manufacturing Company Ltd. of Edmonton, these delicate, wonderfully colorful evening accessories are currently being marketed in major stores across North America. Says Marketing Director David Gilker, "Dolphin, in association with Mermaid Leathers, has seen demand for this high-quality, exotic leather increase substantially from coast-to-coast." Available only through the Dolphin Manufacturing Company.

Natural. Fresh. Basically Blue Skys from Mercury Sportswear.

Nakiska! The fabulous $25 million, super-impressive venue of the recent Olympic Alpine skiing events, where late afternoon sun spills its magic on the new shapes of winter.

Like the Olympic City, Alberta fashion has become a great Canadian success story — as big business, as a way of dressing, as a North American phenomenon. And not only for the millions of dollars in revenue it generates each year. It's the story of innovative designers — new kids on the fashion block — who are being recognized for their flair, energy and talent.

This is Alberta style, with a diversity, energy, impact all its own. On these pages, a look at what's happening... and why.

WE HAVE DESIGNS ON THE FUTURE.

You've seen the talent and energy of our fashion designers. And you know that Alberta's manufacturers are supremely enterprising - competitive - and committed to quality.

What you've seen is simply the beginning.

We've just begun to develop the potential of this profitable industry. Considering the advantages Alberta offers — a superb infrastructure, a free-enterprise government, low-cost energy, moderate taxes, and Canada's most productive work force — the years to come are even more promising.

If you'd like to investigate business, joint venture or investment opportunities, talk to us. We'll introduce you to the people who have designs on the future.

IN ALBERTA, SUCCESS IS ALWAYS IN FASHION.
