DEAR SIR:

We take the liberty of sending an Illustrated Price List, showing the value of goods in certain departments.

For forty years we have maintained the reputation of supplying the best articles at rates below the general market, and we should be glad to have you acquainted with our prices for the present season.

While this places you under no obligation to purchase of us, it will enable you to judge whether it will repay you to give a trial order for whatever is next required in the line of Children's, Boys', or Gentlemen's Clothing, or the miscellaneous goods of which we keep so large and varied an assortment.

Yours very truly,

G. W. SIMMONS & CO.

BOSTON.

MONSIEUR:

Nous prenons la liberté de vous envoyer notre Prospectus qui énumère le prix de quelques-unes de nos marchandises.

Depuis quarante ans nous jouissons de la réputation de fournir les meilleures fabriques à des prix de beaucoup au-dessous des prix ordinaires. et nous désirons vous faire connaître ceux de la saison actuelle.

Quoique ceci ne vous engage en rien à acheter chez nous, cela vous mettra à même de juger si vous trouverez ou non votre compte à faire des achats à l'essai, de quoique ce soit en fait de vêtements pour enfants jeunes gens, et hommes, ou de marchandises en général dont nous avons toujours un assortiment très-grand et très-varié.

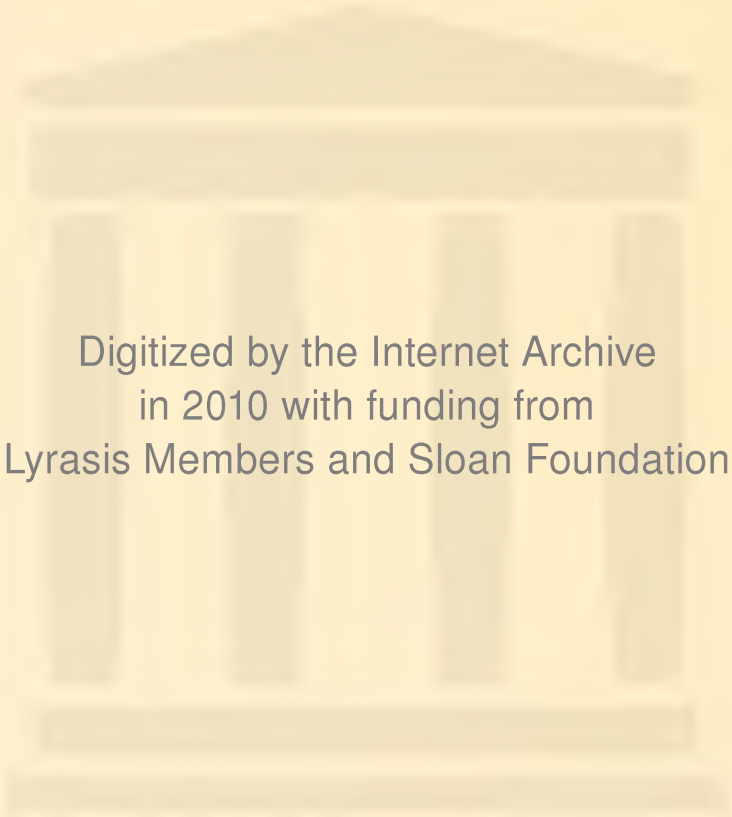

Nous avons l'honneur de vous offrir nos salutations respectueuses,

G. W. SIMMONS & CO.

BOSTON.

MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

OUR STOCK.

We have constantly on hand one of the largest lines of fine and medium Ready-Made Suits in the country, comprising the Latest Styles and Productions of English, German, and Domestic manufacture.

Our Coats are acknowledged to be the best fitting in the city. They are cut Single-breasted and Double-breasted Sacks, three outside pockets and one inside. Single-breasted English Walking or Half-Cutaway Frocks, two pockets in folds and one inside. Short and medium roll, with or without binding.

Our Trowsers are cut in the latest style, with legs neither too large nor too small, French fly, large curtains. The seat-seams are taped and double stitched, giving additional strength. Side or corner pockets, also watch and right-hip pocket.

Our Vests are cut Single-breasted, mostly without collars, three outside and one inside pockets.

Our Trimmings are the best; fine Sateens, Serges and Italians only are used. The vest backs are the same as the coat linings.

Our Work.—Special attention is given to this branch of our business, and none but experienced help are employed.

What a merry party !
 Four little children in a pony cart. The pony is fast and sure-footed, and we hope the ride will be a pleasant one.

The cook prepares the dinner; he is very busy and very earnest. Cooks'
 caps, aprons and jackets
 are made by G. W. Simmons & Co., Boston. See Cooks' Garments in index.

In a box at the theatre.
 The gentleman has on a full-Dress suit. For Dress Suits and Opera Hats, see index.

In playing billiards, when the balls remain touching each other they are said to be frozen. The young man has on a billiard jacket with silk sleeves. See index.

The gentleman assists the lady to mount. She has a pretty horse and is a graceful rider. See Riding Habits in index.

See the Drum Major who leads the band. Band uniform and military work of all kinds are specialties with G. W. Simmons & Co. See index.

There is nothing so refreshing in summer as a glass of pure spring water. When ready for summer suits, leave orders with G. W. Simmons & Co., Boston.

When spring comes, gentlemen lay aside their winter overcoats, arctics, fur gloves and soft hats, and put on new suits and spring overcoats. G. W. Simmons & Co. supply the wants of the best dressed men in Boston.

This was the style of dress worn by a class of men called "dudes." It was very absurd and short-lived, and gave the wearers a very foolish look.
