Useful Information.

PROFIT ON RETURNS.

In calculating profits, it must be remembered that profits should be based upon the returns, otherwise mistakes will probably arise. For instance, an article costing 1/- must be sold at 1/3, or at a profit of 25% to realize 20% on the return.

The following is an easy method of adding the profit to the cost price, so as to allow the same rate of profit to be deducted from the gross returns.

The addition of	{	one half	} to the cost price will yield	{	£	s.	d.	} ½ cent. on the gross returns.
		one third			33	6	8
		one fourth			25	0	0
		one fifth			20	0	0
		one sixth			16	13	4
		one seventh			14	5	8
		one eighth			12	10	0
		one ninth			11	2	2½
		one tenth			10	0	0
		one eleventh			9	1	10
		one twelfth			8	6	8
					7	13	10

EXAMPLE.

The prime cost of an article being 21s. it is required to be marked at such a price as will yield 12½ per cent on the returns?

One seventh of 21s. is 3s., which added is 24s. the selling price.

12½ per cent off 24s is 3s., which deducted, leaves 21s. the cost price.

The Shoreditch Folding Box.

LATEST NOVELTY.

Telescopic Expanding Collapsible Box with Deep Lid.

12 Boxes Folded Flat.

No. 95.

Box erected to take One Costume or Suit.

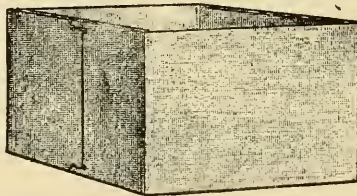

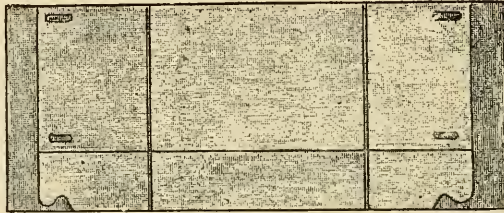

This Box is not difficult to erect—it erects itself. It is perfectly rigid and will support an immense weight. As it has an expanding deep lid, its capacity is nearly double that of an ordinary box of the same size. These boxes are produced by special machinery in large quantities only. We can therefore offer these special sizes at an extraordinary low price.

LADIES' BONNET CASES.

With Patent Cones.

The advantages of these Cones are that they are made movable, so that if there are too many feathers in front of the hat the cone can slide backwards, and vice versa, keeping the feathers from being damaged in any way. The Cone is neither round or square, but just fits into the body of the hat. Many complaints were made of the old Cone as, being round, the Pins often slipped away. In this Cone that is obviated.

Advertising Novelty!

Remarkable Attraction.

With a 3-dozen order for P & S Corsets, two are supplied gratis in place of 1000 1-color circulars.

With a 6 or 12-dozen order, four are given in place of 500 colored photo circulars: i.e., four accordion skirt figures and 500 circulars, as an alternative to 1000 circulars only.

THE above illustration gives but a faint idea of this beautiful figure. The skirt is a brilliant red or purple, accordion-pleated; while the upper portion is lithographed and embossed in the best possible style. Not for a long time have we had to offer such a striking advertisement. The figure stands 19" high; can be shown anywhere—on counter; in glass case; in window; in showroom. It will arrest instant attention, and impress P & S Corsets on the mind in a most pleasant and convincing way.

Madame Lieder Corset.

(Patent No. 21539.)

Quality 50, Price 47 6.

The very nicest, most comfortable, and satisfactory Belted Corset.

Description of The Madame Lieder Corset

The lower portion of the busks (A) to (B) is fastened by our patent interlacing method, an ingenious contrivance whereby the wearer is enabled to open or close the corset below the waist at will. They have elastic hip gores (C) made in a style that, though quite flexible, always retain their shape and will not curl up. Absolute ease is ensured, whilst perfect symmetry of figure is obtained. D is a neat buckle and strap, so arranged that it prevents the curling up of the bottom portion, a fault found in most other corsets. All supports are watch springs. It is perfectly finished and of the highest grade.

As a Cycling Corset, it is the only one yet introduced that thoroughly fulfils the requirements of a Lady Cyclist

Though this is by far the best belted corset now on the market, the price is but that of an ordinary one.

We hear that many people who object to ordinary belted corsets are delighted with the Madame Lieder, and wear no other corset.

HAVE YOU TRIED THEM?

If not, procure a pair at once.

WE GUARANTEE

You will be pleased with them.
