Men's and Boys' Shoes

NOTICE.

THIS CATALOGUE represents such goods as are kept constantly in stock.

Please read carefully the following in regard to ordering goods.

Our Terms are Cash. Remit by Express, Money Order Draft, P. O. Order or Registered Letter, otherwise we forward by express, C. O. D., which last always entails additional expense.

When remitting, state amount enclosed. No goods by mail or express sent on approbation or subject to inspection.

We execute orders on the day received, or at the latest the following day, otherwise an acknowledgment will be mailed explaining the cause of delay ; but, should you not receive a reply within a reasonable time, please duplicate order, and give particulars of the enclosures in original. Write each order complete within itself, so as to have no reference to any former transaction.

When a customer fails to give shipping instructions, we forward good by express, rather than delay or write for advice.

We cannot hold ourselves responsible for goods that may be lost or damaged in the mails, either from or to us.

Should any of our customers have cause for complaint, we shall deem it a favor if they will state particulars, that we may thoroughly investigate, and do justice to all concerned.

Goods may be exchanged at purchaser's risk and expense, when returned promptly and in good condition.

We insure against loss in the mail, to any point within the United States, at the small cost of 5 cents, for any amount less than $5.00, and 5 cents extra for each additional $5.00, as we do not guarantee safe delivery if sent by mail.

Express is frequently cheaper, and always safe.

In returning goods by mail to be exchanged, please be careful to erase all marks, otherwise full letter postage is charged. The name and address of sender are allowed on the package, but writing matter inside also subjects it to letter postage.

Packages must be tied, so as to admit of being easily opened by the Postmaster for inspection.

To secure a fit it is desirable in ordering to give us the width as well as the length. Shoes are generally marked on the lining in figures to denote the length, and in letters to denote the width. In case of doubt, any shoe which has been worn, however worthless it may be, will materially assist us in deciding the size.

Children generally require with each new pair of shoes at least half a size longer than they have been wearing.

Please do not cut out the illustrations. You will be understood by quoting the number of the article wanted.

We will be pleased to reply to inquiries respecting goods, prices, styles, etc., endeavoring to give full information.

All communications should be addressed to

A. ALEXANDER,

Sixth Avenue and 19th Street,

NEW YORK CITY.

CUSTOM DEPARTMENT.

We guarantee a fit to our own measurement only.

Measures left with us can be used for subsequent orders, but due consideration should be given to the fact, if the weight of the person has materially changed.

HOW TO SELECT.

Care.—There is no part of a lady's or gentleman's outfit that requires more intelligent care than the footwear, and, as a rule, none receives less.

Choice.—Principles of selection (always important), and in other articles of dress generally applied, are, in the choice of shoes, frequently overlooked. Sometimes both comfort and service are sacrificed to appearances. Having decided what is wanted, choose according to the use for which the goods are designed.

Economy.—Sometimes fine goods are chosen, when heavier goods would give much better satisfaction, besides being less expensive. Light fine shoes (like light fabrics) cannot stand so much hard usage as the heavier grades.

HOW TO FIT.

Guidance.—Our effort is to furnish a good fit. This is to our interest as well as that of the wearer. Insist on being properly fitted. The letter (indicating the width), and the number (indicating the length) of former shoes which have fitted satisfactorily, together with a description of their style and form, is a safe guide. Or, better still, forward by mail any shoe which has been worn long enough to have acquired the shape of the foot. We can then discover the peculiar characteristics (if any) required to secure a fit.

Length.—The form of the foot varies, perhaps more than that of any other portion of the body; so many feet have been distorted by poorly fitting shoes, especially by wearing shoes too short while the young feet are still growing. Do not attempt to wear short shoes. Test the length by standing up (full weight); if then there be any pressure on the toe, however slight, the shoe is too short.

Closeness.—Let them fit closely over the instep, so as to prevent their riding forward and throwing the pressure on the toes.

Exchanges.—Exchange rather than begin to wear poorly fitting shoes; but do not ask us to exchange shoes that have been soiled from use, or in which alterations have been made. Exchangeable goods may be exchanged at purchaser's risk and expense when returned promptly and in good condition.

Service.—Shoes that fit well not only look better, but also wear better than poorly fitting ones. Undue or wrongly distributed strain distorts the shape of both shoes and feet.

Style.—Much is said about style of lasts in securing accuracy of fit, symmetry, etc., etc. Each style may have special merits for its own type of foot, but no one style has universal claims. Do not follow the changes of style too closely. In many cases do not follow them at all.

Self-Measurement.—It is absurd.

The Illustrations are intended to show the general style. It would take many more than the number we now publish to show all the little modifications.

HOW TO WEAR.

Begin Right.—In putting on new shoes, be careful for the first few times to have them perfectly straight on the foot. In buttoned shoes be quite as careful the first few times buttoning. More attention should be given to this than the first putting on of kid gloves. A button-hook used as a lever may break any button-hole, however strong. A little attention just here would save much trouble and obviate many misunderstanding.

Begin Right.—Do not handle or put on Patent Leather Shoes, especially new ones, while they are cold. Any grade of patent leather will crack readily when chilled.

Friction.—Wear of the uppers must always be expected where they are exposed to friction. "Constant dropping wears away a stone." When the rub comes from a harsh substance, and is applied to a single spot, as happens in many boyish and childish amusements, and in the case of some of the facings used in ladies' skirts, the effect, of course, is damaging. Such things, if they cannot be prevented, should never be complained of. They are expected and accepted in other articles of merchandise.

Complaints.—Kindly allow us to investigate fully each case. Let us see both shoes. It is our interest, even more than that of the wearer, to discover any fault or flaw in stock or workmanship.

Accidents.—Never dry shoes hurriedly, as you may readily burn them. By placing shoes in contact with heated rails or steam pipes, or near a fire, while leather is soaked with water, the drying process is rapid and they become scorched or burnt in a short time. So-called accidents frequently happen in this way.

Perspiration.—Do not wear rubbers over good shoes. Their tendency is to cause perspiration, and perspiration is little less destructive than acid to most kinds of leather.

Repairs.—Do not let shoes run down at the heel or side. To prevent this have them promptly repaired. This is true economy. Besides, by being kept in good condition, they retain their normal shape. Do not allow a crust of blacking or dressing to form on shoes.

SUNDRIES.

Shoe Trees in these days are almost a necessity to every lady and gentlemen wearing Fine Shoes. They keep the Shoes in shape, taking out wrinkles, and preventing the toes from turning up.

PUTTING TREE IN SHOE.

We keep them in different varieties, and make them to order to fit perfectly, either Shoes or Riding Boots.

We particularly recommend, on account of its compactness and convenience for handling, the
