

A man with short, light-colored hair is smiling and looking upwards and to the left. He is wearing a dark navy blue sweater with a large, intricate pattern of red and white snowflakes and geometric shapes. Underneath, a white collared shirt and a dark tie are visible. He is also wearing dark grey or green trousers. He is leaning against a wooden chair with a white, wavy-patterned backrest. The background is a plain, light blue-grey color.
