Entrance to

VANTINE'S

The House of the Orient

Location of the
VANTINE BUILDING
 1 West 39th Street
 New York

Convenient to both of the railroad terminals, the three subways, the Sixth Avenue "L", several surface car lines and the Fifth Avenue busses; likewise in the heart of the new shopping district and near the theatres. Why not lunch in our White Cloud Tea Room before the matinee?

INTRODUCTION

THE purpose of this book is to bring Vantine's, the Oriental Store, to your home—to assist you in ordering by mail objects of art and utility, collected by our representatives in the busy cities and silent places of the Orient.

Be it a Christmas gift, a birthday remembrance, a wedding present or an article for home adornment or personal use, you can select by mail from the following pages with the assurance that your order will have the same prompt and careful attention as though you purchased personally in our store.

The prices advertised are exactly the same as those prevailing in our establishment in New York, and, with the exceptions stated, include free delivery to your home when your order amounts to $1.00 and over. Furthermore, every article in this booklet is offered with the understanding that if when received it is not exactly as represented, it may be returned, and the courtesy with which the money will be returned is as truly Oriental as the goods themselves.

Vantine's reputation depends upon the genuineness of the Oriental articles offered and the fact that they are not the ordinary, cheaply commercialized articles from the Far East which any shop may buy from an importer. This confidence has been carefully nurtured for more than a half a century and whether your purchase be large or small, you may make it with the absolute assurance that "If you buy at Vantine's, you will be proud to say so."

On the Mezzanine is

The White Cloud Tea Room—the most interesting place in which to lunch or tea in all the great shopping district of Fifth Avenue. Here the most delightful Oriental atmosphere prevails. Seated amid picturesque and colorful furnishings and decorations, courteously served with either American or Oriental dainties by Chinese and Japanese maids in native costume, one feels as though one were really in the Far East. Up here among the many quaint lanterns and overlooking the fascinating displays on the main floor, how easy it is to plan an Oriental room or sun porch or special corner in one's home—and we may add, never a day goes by without some patron doing just this very thing.

On the Second Floor will be found

The Furniture Department

Chinese Teakwood Furniture, Chinese Rattan
Furniture, Chinese Lacquer Furniture,
Japanese Smokers' Stands, Tables, Mirrors, etc., and 6001—CHINESE JACK STRAWS.

Of all the many games originating in China, that of "Jackstraws" is one of the simplest, and yet, most fascinating.

The game consists of 45 pieces of various shapes; the simpler pieces count as 5, the more difficult ones as 10. The game is played by dropping the sticks into a heap, then removing them piece by piece, using a hooked stick, without disturbing those remaining. When a player misses—that is, disturbs another stick—his opponent takes his turn.

A game of skill and nerves.

We have a very large and varied assortment of incenses in our basement salesrooms.

THE old saying that "one-half the world does not know how the other half lives" is peculiarly appropriate when applied to the relishes and dainty eatables of the "Far and Near East."

So many tempting and toothsome tid-bits never or seldom leave the country of their origin, that unless one has traveled abroad and has permitted one's curiosity to overcome a sense of apprehension, one is very apt to remain in ignorance of many delightful treats.

That housewife's bugbear, the getting of "something different and unusual" to lay before an expected guest, is overcome by the Oriental Store however, for at Vantine's may be found a varied assortment of delicious Oriental delicacies, as well as many household necessities, such as teas and coffees, of which none better is to be had anywhere. And in getting these unusual dainties you may also be sure of receiving unusual and unique packages.

For centuries the Chinese have been famous for their preserves and relishes, among which are the always popular preserved ginger, preserved chow-chow (mixed fruits), crystallized ginger, crystallized cumquats, lychee nuts (natural), lychee nuts (preserved), etc., while India with its curry powder, chutneys, etc., is not behind the other Eastern countries in creating relishes that stimulate the appetite and appease the desire for something different.

Japan, while in the East, is in a measure apart from it, but its delightful confections, such as midzume or rice candy, a most wholesome confection; rice bars, similar to our domestic peanut bars, but of a finer flavor; and rice wafers, are some of the eatables peculiar to the Land of the Rising Sun.

On the following pages are illustrated and described a large variety of the Vantine Oriental Delicacies, and we shall be very glad to supply any further information desired regarding the new importations that are being constantly added.

As we do not prepay the transportation charges on Oriental delicacies, be sure to include sufficient money in your remittance to cover forwarding charges, if the articles selected are to be prepaid. Any balance will be promptly refunded.

Miscellaneous Oriental Delicacies

(Not Illustrated)

In addition to the Oriental Delicacies illustrated on the preceding pages, we carry in stock a large variety of sweetmeats, etc., crystallized fruits, nuts, jellies, teas, etc., some of which we list below.

In stating the weights of all Oriental delicacies, the figures given are for the individual articles packed for shipment (mailing) and should not be confused with the net weight or contents of each package, basket, etc.

As the parcel post rates are based on the pound (not ounce) an article weighing less than one pound requires the same postage as though the package weighed the full pound. We abbreviate the words "shipping weight" by the letters "S. W." on this page.

Blue Canton Chinaware

Everybody knows Canton Chinaware—the always popular open stock “willow” pattern—with its pagodas, bridges, streams, boats, little figures of men and women, and the love birds. A quaint legend has it that the story depicted on the china tells how a Mandarin had an only daughter, Li-Chi, who fell in love with her father’s secretary, Chang.

The Mandarin forbade the match, so the lovers eloped, hiding for a time in a gardener’s cottage, until at last they attempted to make their escape to an island which was Chang’s home. The Mandarin pursued them, whip in hand, and would have killed them had not the Gods come to the rescue and changed the two into a pair of turtle doves.

Gold Medallion Chinaware

Long before the Orient opened its doors to Western trading, Gold Medallion China—"The Aristocrat of the Chinaware world"—was the pride of the American housewife.

Then as now it represented all that was best in Chinaware and fortunate, indeed, was the woman who could point to a limited collection of it.

The Gold Medallion China imported by us is manufactured in exactly the same manner as that brought home by the Far Eastern traders of early Colonial days, and its exquisite colorings and artistic designs are more popular today than ever.

For the hostess who seeks Chinaware of distinctiveness and individuality, there is nothing that can compare with Gold Medallion, and being an "open pattern" you may buy an entire set or only a few pieces, and add to these from time to time until your set is complete.

Because of its artistic decorative appearance and serviceability it is particularly appropriate for wedding gifts, and as our stock always includes a large supply of all pieces, the recipient is afforded the pleasure of collecting additional pieces from time to time, as needed.

Howo Chinaware

"Howo" Chinaware is Japanese ware, pleasing in design and very serviceable. Ever since Chinaware has been known, its dainty color scheme of blue and white has been much admired. By application of modern science it has been made particularly strong and durable, and is therefore suited to everyday use. It is said when the "Howo" bird descended from Heaven, there appeared a Wise Man who ruled the country so peacefully that the peasants enjoyed abundant harvests, which spread happiness throughout the land, filling the hearts of all the Japanese people with joy and gladness. In Japan this design is generally called "Howo Moyo"; this is combined with "Kiku" or "Chrysanthemum," which is the Queen of Flowers and the Emperor's Crest or Coat of Arms, and representative of the Japanese nation. It is of ancient, historic origin and very unique.

Sedji Chinaware

Sedji Ware is Japanese China of a delightful shade of green, and closely resembles ancient China "Celadon," or color of the sea, from which it takes its name. This ware is held in the highest esteem by the Japanese people, who are experts in the selection of artistic porcelains. The shapes, beautiful in their simplicity, are covered with a satiny glaze that is blown on a pure white body, resulting in a dainty table service that is both distinctive and moderately priced. For presentation purposes as well as for personal use there is nothing more practical and pleasing than this delightful chinaware from the Land of the Rising Sun.

PERSIAN RUGS

Our stock of Oriental Rugs is comprised of all the various styles and weaves desired by those who are looking for the most artistic as well as lasting rugs, ranging in size from the small mat to large carpets. The Oriental Rugs are all of fine quality wool, dyed with vegetable dyes, dyes that have been used in the Orient for generations. The patterns or designs vary, according to the section of the Orient in which they are made—some being made by the Nomadic Tribes, others in the towns from which they derive their names. There are no two rugs exactly alike. The individuality of the weaver is very often shown in the rug. The large rugs are woven on very primitive looms, crude and clumsy, and oftentimes the entire family working on the same rug.

The stock includes medium grades, such as the Beloochistan, with its dark, rich reds and blues. The Kurdish Mossoul, Shiraz and Hamadans in varied designs and coloring, and no two exactly alike. Also the fine grades, such as Sarouks, Keshans, Kirmans, Khorasans, Araks, Fereghans, etc. The stock also includes antique Giordes and Anatolian prayer rugs and other antiques, which could not be duplicated. We will gladly furnish all possible information regarding any of our rugs.

The rug illustrated is the finest example of the Kermanshah weave, 245 knots to the square inch. Colorings of subdued rose, blue, green and tan. Size 8 ft. x 4 ft. 10 ins. Price $550.00

CHINESE WOOL RUGS

Vantine's was among the first to import Chinese Wool Rugs. And since our first importation the industry has grown from an unimportant one to one of gigantic proportions: from a few scattered looms about Tientsin to thousands of looms all over North China; from a few hundred weavers employed spasmodically to many thousands constantly employed. And because of this steady employment, the Chinese rug weavers have become second to none.

Carefully selected Chinese Wool Yarns, vegetable dyes and artistically arranged designs adapted to occidental furnishings have created a great popular demand. Values too, have been a great factor in creating this demand.

Chinese Rug qualities are determined by the number of warp strings used to the foot, and length of pile, and are known as 60 string, 70 string, 80 string, 90 string, 100 string, etc. We do not recommend qualities below 80 strings.

The present predominating colors are blue, gold, tan, taupe, mulberry and rose—also two-tone blue with harmonizing colors worked in design.

The rug illustrated is of the 80 string quality, $\frac{5}{8}$ -inch pile washed, size, 4 feet x 7 feet. Gold color predominates, with a border of blue designed in contrasting shades of rose, gold and two-tone blues.

Price $125

Other sizes are 2 x 4, $2\frac{1}{2}$ x 5, 3 x 5, 3 x 6, 4 x 7, 5 x 8, 6 x 9, 8 x 10, 9 x 12, 10 x 14 and up.

Oriental Silks, Draperies, etc.

(Not Illustrated)

The Vantine silk and drapery materials, unique in the oddity of their weaves and mellowness of tone, maintain a fitness for any style of decoration for walls and draperies of all kinds. From the bungalow to the drawing-room, home, hotel or club. Many years before the knowledge of silk-weaving was ever known in the West, the natives of China and Japan were masters of the art.

Their superiority they have retained to the present day. And no where else can be found silks so entrancing, so soft and supple as the hand-loom silk of the Orient.

We carry a full and complete line of Oriental silks, both in the plain as well as the figured, and new goods arrive weekly.

Articles Not Illustrated

"Not illustrated." In addition to the articles illustrated or described herein, there are thousands of distinctive and unique Oriental objects of art and utility in the Vantine stock which were not included in this booklet, such as:

CHINESE PORCELAINS. Examples of ancient and modern pieces, vases—jars, floor vases, plaques, etc.

SCREENS. There are a hundred and one uses for the Japanese screen—and there are a thousand and one ways of meeting the demand, if one culls from the Vantine screen assortments. Screens of every size, coloring and price, in varieties unmatched.

ORIENTAL DRESS SILKS, CREPES AND SATINS. Plain, brocaded and embroidered. Not usual or conventional in any way—they're exclusively Vantine's.

SILKS FOR DECORATIONS. In designs and colorings that lend much to the beautifying of interiors—very Oriental, of course.

JAPANESE PORCELAINS. The delightful quaintness of the patterns, the egg-shell delicacy of the wares, and the beauty of the floral and figure decorations, give the table porcelains of Japan a remarkable prestige. They're made in every requisite piece of table use, at invariably moderate prices.

COTTON CREPES. Figured and plain. Used for wall and window hangings, cushions, dresses, etc.

SILK CUSHIONS. Unrivalled for decorative beauty and service.

DRAPERY MATERIALS. Silks, crepes, prints, cretonnes, brocades, etc., suitable for drapery, cushions, etc.

EVENING COATS. New models of Mandarin Coats, made of silk and crepe, with handsome embroidered designs all over.

FANS of nearly every conceivable shape, material and color effect—fans of paper, silk, gauze, sandalwood, bone, are shown in wide assortments.

FURNITURE. Japanese carved and Chinese teakwood. Beautiful deep hand-carved chairs, dressing tables, hall seats, etc.

EMBROIDERIES. The choicest specimens of embroidery from nearly every province of the Orient.

IVORY, both plain and carved, articles made with extraordinary care—clever handwork. Figures of men, women, children, gods, dragons, animals, etc., for cabinet pieces and for the dressing table.

LAMPS AND SHADES. An individuality, such as it is impossible to reproduce, clings to these Vantine lamps. Chinese porcelain, bronze, pottery and rare porcelain vases are mounted and fitted to harmonize with any style of decoration. Suitable for electricity, and fixtures for dining room, side fixtures for walls, etc., in a great and unique variety.

PAPER PARASOLS. In the variegated, harmonious colorings of Japan—useful in scores of ways. Also Japanese paper lanterns in a nice variety of shapes and colorings.

ORIENTAL JARDINIERS. Used for palms, bay-trees, hydrangeas and plants of every kind. In the favorite designs and colorings of the art-loving Oriental.

LACQUERS OF JAPAN. The beautiful lacquer ware of Japan is distinctly Japanese; it's one of the Flowery Kingdom's "very own" arts, as remarkable as it is distinctive. The Vantine line includes many new specimens in lacquers of the finest type.

PORTIERES. The Japanese string curtains of bamboo, glass, beads and rice beads have no rivals for beauty and oddity. Used in scores of ways—at windows, doors, oftentimes in "nooks" and corners.

TABLE COVERS AND SCARFS. Remarkable examples of Oriental needlework; the most comprehensive collection ever imported.

UMBRELLA JARS FROM JAPAN. Numbering among the most useful of the decorative wares of Japan. All sorts of shapes, colorings, and all sorts of prices.

FLOOR VASES. Marvelously impressive examples of the eastern potter's skill in a wide variety of sizes and decorations.

BRONZES. Famed for their marvelous modeling, coloring and finish. Figures of warriors, idols, birds, and animals. Vases, koros, jardinières, umbrella stands, lamp vases, etc.

CLOISONNE ENAMELS. The annealing of colored, opaque and transparent enamels on silver, copper and bronze bodies produces the remarkable cloisonne of Japan. The Vantine collection rivals all others in size and in value.

SCREENS. We have a large variety of Chinese and Japanese screens—our Chinese screens are of antique hand-carved wood, some are hand-painted, others are embroidered. Rarely are two alike, and rarely can they be duplicated. Prices range from $75 to $500 complete. Description and size sent on request. Our Japanese screens—some of which are illustrated in this Catalog—are embroidered on cotton or satin, and hand-painted on cotton, have strongly made lacquered or stained wood frames, and are suitable for fire places, bedrooms, dining rooms and living rooms.

CHINESE PORCELAINS. Example of Antique and Modern ceramics, in vases, jars, floor vases, lamp mounts, etc.

FURNITURE. A large line of Chinese carved teakwood may always be found at Vantine's, and consists of taborettes, jardinière stands, hall seats, chairs, tables, stands; all deeply hand-carved.

Chinese lacquered furniture in chair, tables, screens and taborettes. Chinese rattan porch, lawn, and sun-parlor furniture.

EMBROIDERIES. A special feature of our embroidery department is the splendid and unrivalled assortment of Chinese old embroideries—rich, soft colorings, in sleeve bands, table mats, covers, hangings, coats, gowns, skirts, mandarin squares, etc., embroideries that cannot be duplicated. Palace pieces, dynasty pieces, many at amazingly low prices; all fairly priced. Also grass table linens, hand-embroidered and silk tassels, in a large variety of unusual sizes, shapes and colorings.
